THE YELLOW FEVER.

Death Yet Harvesting--Holly Springs a Grave Yard.

VICKSBURG, September 6—The city sexton reports 36 deaths during the past 24 hours. One physician reports 60 new cases. It is thought the number of new cases will go far above any other day since the fever appeared. Physicians say they can no longer make reports of new cases for want of time and the large increase of new cases. The Howard Association is calling in God's name for physicians from all all parts of the country to come to the relief of the stricken ones of Vicksburg. The number of physicians here is small and they are broken down and several are sick.

CINCINNATI, Spet. 6—The Health officer has sent three physicians one druggist and two nurses to Memphis. The Relief committee decided to send immediately six hundred dollars worth of supplies to Memphis five hundred to Vicksburg and two hundred and fifty to Port Gibson and fifty blankets to Grenada.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 6—A special from Brownsville, Tenn., says to-day has been a blue one. 13 new cases and 4 deaths are reported. The fever attacks natives and visitors alike. The Howards with the aid of the city authorities have to bury the dead themselves. The town is deserted. All the stores except the drug stores are closed nurses, money and supplies are needed.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 4.—Bishop Ryan transmitted by telegraph $1,200 to the fever sufferers in the South, and sent to Mayor Overstolz, a check for one thousand, being the amount collected in the Catholic churches last Sunday. The The Ladies' Hebrew Sewing Society agreed to make sheets and other bed clothes for the Howard Association in the Southern cities, and the Young Men's Hebrew Literary Society promised to furnish material.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—The Howard Association issued over 3,000 rations yesterday, and reported 300 applications for relief. A dispatch to the Howards from Ocean Springs, reports two deaths from yellow fever and four cases under treatment. Father Charles is down with the fever. The Howards have received the following telegrams:

VICKSBURG, MISS., Sept. 3.

Seventy cases and fourteen deaths are reported at Greensville, Mississippi, and thirty cases and four deaths at Goodrich's Landing.

(Signed,) WM. ROCKWOOD,
President of the Howard Association

GREENVILLE, MISS., September 4 — The fever epidemic is upon us. We have no nurses. Send six.

(Signed.) A. B. TRIGG,
Mayor.

SAVANNAH, September 4.—The Savannah contributions foot up $5,780. Yesterday one thousand five hundred dollars were sent to New Orleans, one thousand to Memphis, Grenada and Vicksburg. Two physicians left here last night and 20 nurses have been sent to the infected places.

WASHINGTON, September 4.—Senator Kellogg this morning, at the suggestion of certain parties in New Orleans, had an interview with the Secretary of War, and urged that the twenty days' government grations for two thousand persons of that city be distributed through the Collector of the port. This will avoid all complications among the benevolent organizations. The rations will be distributed on their respective applications without any distinction whatever as to the classes of sufferers. Besides, as rations are furnished by the government, it was thought that a government officer would be the proper channel of distribution. The Quartermaster at New Orleans has been instructed accordingly.

GREENVILLE, Miss. Sept., 6—19 new cases, 19 deaths to-day.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 6—Deaths today include 15 children under six years of age. A dispatch to the Howards from Canton Miss. says there are 12 new cases and four deaths within 24 hours. Several parties died in the country who left town.

NEW YORK, September 6—It was determined at to-day's meeting of the Southern Relief Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, to send one thousand dollars each to the Howard Association of Vicksburg and to the Memphis branch. One thousand to the Relief association of Memphis and $500 received from Layard Freres, of San Francisco, to the Hebrew Relief Society of Vicksburg. The committee received contributions this morning to the amount of $1,243. The Brooklyn Relief committee has resolved to send all contributions to the President of the Howard Association, with instructions to distribute $1000 each in Memphis, Vicksburg and New Orleans. Subscriptions amounting to $1757 were received today, making a total of 4403 dollars to date. Receipts from the ballot boxes were $345.

At a meeting of the Homeopathic Medical Society of Kings county, a committee was appointed to learn in in what way their brethern in the South could be aided. Mayor Ely to-day received $810 in subscriptions to aid the sufferers. The Seventh Regiment has subscribed $1000. At the Post office $129.73 has been received within the past 24 hours.

HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS., September 4.—Over sixty cases of the fever and 6 deaths to-day. Business is suspended. There is great need of nurses and physicians. Two physicians are sick with the fever. Many cases will die to-day, Gloom, despair and death rule the hour. The situation is simply appalling. The outside world are appealed to for help. The telegraph operators are going to leave.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 4—Contributions to the Southern relief fund to-day $2,836, total $29,804.

GRENADA, Sept. 4.—Since last night's reports there are 12 new cases and eight deaths. One negro and seven whites. The deaths are as follows: Dr. Gillespie and mother, Mrs. Morrison, Miss Hughes, Aleck Rafolsky, Ike Williams, D. H. Holt, and one unknown. There is no abatement of fever.

MOBILE, Sept. 4.—Notwithstanding the case of yellow fever reported by Dr. Gaines last Saturday, there has been no spread of the disease. The city is enjoying excellent health.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—The weather to-day is unfavorable. Heavy rain prevailing. Two hundred and twelve new cases reported and seventy-two deaths.

Washington Notes.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—S. Newton Pettis, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed Minister Resident and Consul General at Bolivar. It is stated this appointment is made by the President without consulting Evarts. Pettis filled an unexpired term in the 40th Congress.

The Secretary of the Treasury to-day issued the seventieth call for the redemption of 5-20 bonds of 1865; principal and interest to be paid on and after December 4th, next. The call is for two million coupon and three million registered bonds.

The President has removed General Filley, Postmaster at St. Louis, and appointed Samuel Hayes to that office. Charges of violating the Civil Service rules are brought against Filley. The new Postmaster, Hayes, is a strong friend of Secretary Schurz, and there was a warm fight, both inside and outside the cabinet, last winter, when Tilley was reappointed over Hayes, who was then a promiuent applicant for the place.

Secretary Sherman, in a letter written to-day, says the trade dollar was never a legal tender, but possessed only a commercial value, depending upon the price ot silver bullion. At no time and on no account have they ever been received or paid out by the Treasury, and it is a cause of regret that so many persons should have accepted them at their full value, thus enabling their owners to put them in circulation at a considerable profit. As early as August 24th, 1876, the department informed an inquirer that the trade dollar had only a bullion value, and this information has been repeated scores of times, and published by the press through the country.

Official reports to the State Dep't. mention that the British bark Onaway, Capt. Wilmot. from New York to Trieste, put into Malta on the 3d ultimo, in consequence of a mutiny on board that vessel on the 1st ult., when she was about 28 miles from Cape Passano. Two of the crew assaulted the chief mate, whereupon a general scuffle ensued, in which the chief mate, boatswain, steward and a seaman were dangerously wounded. The master defended himself with a revolver, and shot one of his assailants. A Greek, who was seriously wounded, jumped overboard, and was followed by his comrade, also a Greek. The Captain has undergone a Court of Enquiry and has been acquitted.

A FRIGHTFUL DISASTER.

An Excursion Steamer Sunk---Six Hundred and Fifty Lives Lost.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The excursion steamer Princess Alice which was run into and sunk with such frightful results last evening was one of the largest saloon steamers of the London Steamboat Company. She left London at 11 o'clock yesterday morning from Gravesend and Sheerness, many excursionists being induced by the fine weather to go for a holiday trip. The vessel left Gravesend on the return journey soon after six o'clock in the evening, arrived within sight of the Royal Arsenal at Woolwich about 8 o'clock. Bywell Castle was then approaching on the opposite course. Two steamers were near the middle of the stream just off the city of London Gas works at Beckton and below north of the Woolwich Gardens, almost the precise spot where the fatal collision occurred between the Metis and Wentworth ten years ago. What happened is impossible accurately to detail. All that is known amid maddening excitement is that a screw steamer struck the Princess Alice on the port side near fore sponson. A scene which has had no parallel on the river, ensued. Few, very few, persons clambered on the other vessel, but nearly all rushed to the after part of the Princess Alice. As the bow subsided gradually under the water shrieks were fearful, and nothing could be done to save life. There were a dozen or more life buoys on board, and some boats were swinging in davits, but even if they could have been got at they would have been of little service under the circumstances. Within five minutes the Princess Alice keeled completely over and went down in deep water. Some small boats hastened to the scene, and the Duke of Teck, another steamer belonging to the same company, which was also on the passage of the river with a party of excursionists, went to the rescue, but the river for hundreds of yards was full of drowning people, screaming in anguish and praying for help, and as it was growing dark then, not much could be done. It is believed that not more than one hundred and fifty persons escaped out of eight hundred aboard the vessel.

The Princess Alice was a long and low river steamer, built for excursions down the Thames, of which middle and poorer classes of Londoners were very fond. She had saloons on forward and after decks. Her passenger carrying capacity was unusually large. A large proportion of her passengers last evening were on the upper or saloon deck, and must have seen beforehand their impending doom, but those in the stern of the steamer had no warning until they heard the crash and found passengers from the forward part of the vessel running to the after part. Beyond the fact that the tide was about two hours ebb, which would enable the Princess Alice to ease and stop sooner than the screw steamer, which would be borne on the tide, it is impossible to discover any of the circumstances immediately preceding the collisions Before the boats came in collision there were cries from one to the other, to keep out of the way, but as usual in such cases, the accident was probably due to a misunderstanding, the one misinterpreting the intention of the other. All the rules of sailing were cast to the winds in the moment of peril, each taking the wrong course to right each other's blunder.

HORRIBLE ASPECT OF THE PLAGUE AT MEMPHIS.

The Undertakers Unable to Bury Dead Bodies Fast Enough--Decomposing Bodies Found in Deserted Houses.

New York Times.

MEMPHIS, September 2.—The list of new cases and deaths, though not as long as those of yesterday and days previous, affords no comfort, when it is known that only a few physicians made reports at the Health Office and the undertakers were unable to bury the dead for want of labor and material. This was particularly the case with county undertaker Walsh, who could not turn a wheel until he received help from the Citizens' Committee, and it was nearly noon before he begun work. He started to your reporter to-night that if all his wagons are kept running through the night till noon to-morrow he cannot bury the dead now awaiting interment. At Elmwood the coffins are piled up in tiers, notwithstanding that a force is constantly employed digging graves. It is the same at all the burying grounds.

Not less than 20 applications were made at the office of the Board of Health to-day to have dead bodies buried. Some had been dead since Friday and Saturday, and were in an advanced state of decomposition. Two bodies were reported to be at No. 108 Vance street, no living person being in the house or knowing anything about them. A dead white woman was reported to be at No. 109 Madison street; she has recently died alone. Her body lay on the floor behind the bed, where she had fallen and died. A dead body was discovered in a house on Union street, nearly devoured by rats. At an old shanty in an unsettled part of Chelsea a body was found which had been dead since Friday, and the flesh was falling from the bones. These are only a few of the reports made to-day.

The people of Augusta, Ark., were greatly alarmed on the receipt of a telegram saying that the steamer Hardcash was going to land 200 passengers at Newport, under cover of 40 armed men and brass pieces of ordnance. Gov. Miller was telegraphed to call out the Militia, and for a time the greatest consternation prevailed. At last a telegram was received pronouncing the whole thing a hoax, and peace was restored.

In view of the inability of the undertakers to bury people as fast as they die, the Citizens' Committee to day organized a burial corps, consisting of 40 men with the necesary wagons. &c., who will enter upon their duties tomorrow.

The demoralized condition of affairs has created considerable alarm as to the preservation of the peace, and Mayor Flippin to-day telegraphed to the President asking him to station two companies of United States troops in the vicinity of the city.

OXFORD ITEMS.

A Mixed State of Affairs--Judge Kerr to Settle the Question.

Correspondence of the News.

OXFORD, Sept. 4th.

Granville county matters are still enigmatically confused. There is a conflict between the Board of County Commissioners and the Magistrates, relative to the levying of taxes and the tax books. The Commissioners, or a majority of them, think Sheriff Bullock should have the books, and the Magistrates, or a majority of them, owing to irregularities in the levying of the taxes, think the whole matter ought to be delayed for the present, which would result in the placing of the tax books in the hands of Garner, the Sheriff elected in August last.

This matter is attracting much attention, and is in the hands of the law. Judge Kerr will be here on Saturday next to try the points at issue between the Magistrates and the Commissioners. Great interest is felt in the result of this case.

The late freshets have done much damage to property in this county.

The French Army.

N. Y. Times.

What a curse to a Government a great army is, and always must be, in time of peace! The grand total of land and sea forces in France, according to the Journal of Military Science, is to-day, in round numbers, 3,600,000 men, equal to about one-tenth of the entire population of the country. There are in the army, in actual service, 480,000 men; in the navy, 50,000. The first army reserve is 900,000; the second, 700,000; the first naval reserve, 20,000; the second, 40,000 men. The territorial army is 700,000, the territorial reserve, 700,000, making an aggregate of 3,590,000 men—the entire strength, life-blood, and hope of the nation converted into military machines and potential food for powder.

The China Cure of Yellow Fever

Special dispatch to Washington Post.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 31.—Hong Chin Foo, a Chinaman who has resided in this country since 1873, leaves here tonight for Memphis, to treat the yellow fever by a remedy which he claims to be infallible. He proposes to make pipes of a peculiar construction and provide a preparation of opium and some oil, the use of which, he states, is the real cause of the immunity of the Chinese from the ravages of the disease. He is perfectly sanguine of the success of his experiment.

Law and Order in South Carolina.

In response to the solicitations of the Charleston News, the eight circuit judges of South Carolina have expressed themselves in regard to the condition of affairs in that State. With one accord these judges unite to speak of the diminution of crime and of the improved treatment of the colored people by their white neighbors. Judge T. J. Mackey, a former leading Republican, asserts that the proportion of crime to the population for the past year has been far less than in any New England State, or even in Holland, the most orderly of European nations. Life and property are now as well guarded and as safe as in any State in the Union. To this exhibit is to be added the fact that only two cases are reported of crimes committed by white against colored persons, and one of these was an act in self defence. The judges say the impartial, vigorous administration of law has even led the colored people to prefer white juries to those of their own race.

The Inter-Oceanic Project.

Washington Star.

An effort is making to revive interest in the Nicarauguan Inter-Oceans canal project. This effort is being made here and in other sections of the country. The friends of the project are getting uneasy least England and France may secure control of the route. Capitalists in those two countries are ready to place the necessary funds to complete the work, and the government of Nicaragua is growing restive under the long delay of the U. S. government in deciding what it intends to do in the matter. The strength of opposition to the project in this country comes from the Panama railroad company, This corporation succeeded in defeating the proposed canal during General Grant's administration, and is on the look out and ready to oppose any revival of the subject. An attempt will be made at the next session of Congress to interest that body in the work. If a failure follows, it will be dropped so far as this country is concerned, and the execution of the work be left to European governments.

The Nihilists.

All the Year Round.

The vast association of the Nihilists is more comprehensive in its aims, and more thoroughgoing in its principles, than were even the Anabaptists of Leyden, or the Levelers and Fifth Monarchy Men, who fought and marched, under protest, in Cromwell's army. Their simple desire is to make a clean sweep of all human institutions, and to take their chance of what may follow. Only give them leave to destroy, and reconstruction may prove practicable or may not; but in any case, the world will be tilted out of its old grooves, and cut adrift from its old moorings. No more authority, whether of priest or king of corporal or policeman. No more property, be it an acre of potatoes or a princely demesne. Religion, learning, ambition, family life, are obstacles to so gigantic a change. Let all these go, say the fierce-eyed apostles of this gloomy creed, and then the new millenium of universal negation will run its course unchecked! That Nihilism should number millions of Russians among its converts is not very surprising, since an ignorant peasantry, slaves but yesterday, and used from infancy to a rude tribal communism, cannot be expected to grasp the truths of political economy. Nor need we wonder if Counts and Barons, Clerks, Captains, and civil functionaries, sincerely sick of a grinding despotism that meddles with everything and mends nothing, should become fellow-conspirators with those "black people," whose first act would be to improve noble, magistrate, and official from off the face of Russia. Even educated Nihilists perhaps cherish a vague hope that some order might be evolved out of the chaos that is to come, and that the new system might be more to their taste than the rule of a stifling despotism. The real ground for astonishment is that so many Germans, superior both in culture and in brain power to their flat-faced neighbors beyond the Niemen, should have approved themselves pupils, only too apt, in that dark and dismal school which had its origin in Russia. Nothing but a violent reaction against drill, bureaucracy, and pedantry, can explain the sudden adhesion of so many myriads of thoughtful, hard-headed Teutons to a faith that is gilded by no bright hopes and surrounded by no roseate illusions, and that offers, at best, no loftier prospect of success than that of a set of mutinous urchins who should have achieved the triumph of tearing up their books and barring out the school master. Unfortunately, however, Germans sometimes act where Muscovites are content to dream, and an armed and aggressive sect of revolutionary zealots, ready to expound their doctrines with rifle and revolver, may at last compel society to an unwilling defense of its own first principles.

Blarsted Britons Blowing.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—This afternoon's Pall Mall Gazette, in a leading article, inveighs against the Fenian Condon's release, at the solicitation of the United States, as unwise and undignified. It says: The pertinacity of the thrice preferred request for his release is somewhat disrespectful. Minister Welsh's letter borders on the offensive, and in places oversteps the line and approaches the free and easy. If Condon's health was reason enough for releasing him, he ought to have been released without American intercession. That intercession affects the matter only for the worse. Yielding to it simply appears to establish the principle that any justly sentenced criminal, who can pretend a political motive for his crime, and can succeed in enlisting the intercession of a sufficiently pertinacious government, may count upon remission of a sentence for which his less fortunately placed fellow convicts may petition in vain.

How they "Discuss" in Maine.

From the Portland Argus.

Congressman Hale and Mayor Boardman, of Belfast, Me., went out the other day to attend a hard-money meeting. Not being sure of their way, they applied to Capt. Baker, a Greenbacker, for information, and Capt. Baker gave them such directions that they were unable to reach the ground till long after the meeting was over. When they returned with all their speeches in them, Mayor Boardman sought out Capt. Baker and smote him upon the nose.

LAW AND LIGHT.

A Cry for Help From the Second Ward.

Correspondence of the News.

The designs of lawless villians are greatly facilitated in our part of the city, from the fact that we are left in total darkness; not a lamp light can be seen from Tupper's corner on Wilmington street, no matter how dark the night or how muddy the walk, to say nothing of the great danger of being knocked senseless by some miscreant, who would cut one's throat for a trifle. I am requested to ask the city fathers to take some step, at once, to put up lamps, all over the second ward, where, now, there are but few, and they are so far apart that their light is but little use. The tax-payers of this portion of Raleigh are just as much entitled to have lights on their streets, as any in the city. Our money is as good as that of our neighbors, who have all the light. Our ward is Republitan, it is true, but are we to be ignored on that account? It is not right, nor is it just. We must have lights, gentlemen. We reposed confidence in you when we cast our votes for you, and now that it is in your power to bestow a favor on a part of your constituents, can you refuse to do it? We hope not. Therefore, we appeal to you to come to our relief by putting up lamps and causing them to be lighted for the benefit of everybody and then we can see who attacks us, and will be better able to take care of ourselves. Also, give our streets and sidewalks a bit of attention, and favor our dark corners with the appearance of a policeman now and then. We are almost entirely ignored, but hope this will suffice for a better future for our ward. "A stich in time," you know, will keep many tax-payers from saying ugly words, and will keep them in a proper mood for the next election.

ONE OF THE SUFFERERS.

A Splendid Tribute to the Modest Brave.

Mew York Times.

The nurses who have gone out of the pure air of their own homes to the plague-stricken towns, to handle and tenderly care for dead and dying men, who are utter strangers to them, need a higher courage than any soldier marching into the thick of battle. They gain nothing, neither pay nor glory. Their victories are not watched by a proud country for whose honor they give their lives. If they die, no weeping nation will, year by year, hang laurels on their graves. The Howard nurse is only mentioned in the papers as "one of twenty" arriving on such a date, or "one of twenty" who are dead. He gives his life for some poor plague stricken wretch, probably of less value to the world than himself, in the poisoned air of a solitary chamber, where there is none but God to know. He is buried hastily in a nameless grave, with shuddering and fear, and quicklime is thrown upon his body. The sacrifice he makes out of pure love to God and humanity, and this sacrifice is now making, not by one man but by every one of the hundreds of nurses sent out by the Howard Association. Every one of them carries his life in his hand as he goes. These men, too, be it remembered, are Southerners, the people whom we regarded as our enemies not long ago, and whom we regard as impracticable, idle and quarrelsome. It is worth our while to consider this thing.

What a Diver Sees.

New York World.

"The divers who work for wrecking companies see many curious things and have very strange experiences. I will give you one instance by way of illustration. You remember the wreck of the Atlantic on the coast of Maine? Well, John O'Neil, the Eastport (Me.) diver, was employed to raise the bodies. He made several descents, but failed to open the cabin doors. At last he succeeded. As the cabin door was opened, the first thing he saw was two women, fully dressed, suspended in the water. The rush of water carried them toward him, and they appeared to be alive. He stepped back in horror, and it was some time before he gained sufficient courage to enter the cabin. There he found the women who were passengers on that ill-fated ship, kneeling and holding each other by the hands, as if they had been engaged in prayer when the steamer went down. He then went into the smoking room. The cabin was in the wildest disorder. Chairs and tables were turned up-side down, bottles were scattered about, and the men lay on the floor as if they had perished during a drunken revel. Most of them had pistols in their hands. Scenes like this are common in sunken vessels which carry passengers down with them."

Corn.

New York Times.

Corn (now coming in so plentifully) which is generally named maize in Europe, though the English still call it Indian corn, is often thought to be peculiar to this country, because it was cultivated by the aboriginals when Columbus discovered the Western World. He took some of it back to Spain as a peculiar product of the newly-found land, and it was cordially appreciated for its rapid growth and abundant yield. Corn flourishes in Northern Europe, and grows, but not luxuriantly, in Germany and other northern States. From a representation of the plant found in old Chinese books, and from the alleged discovery of some of its kernels in cellars of ancient houses in Athens, it has been supposed to be a native of the East. Many have thought it to be identical with the corn mentioned in the Scriptures. But this opinion is not consistent with the total neglect of so valuable a plant for centuries and its energetic cultivation after Columbus had found it here. There is no kind of grain so productive, or that can be used in so many ways—the intermediate range between whisky and paper being very broad. Although corn is grown in the Old World, it flourishes nowhere as it does in the New, especially in the United States. Indigenous to North America, it so thoroughly represents the growth, variety, richness, and power of our Republic that it should be considered, as indeed it is, our symbolic plant. Maize and America, corn and Columbia, fit into one another verbally as they do in fact. Corn is essentially the grain of the Anglo-American race.

Justice in Turkey.

In the Chamber of Horrors at a well known museum hangs a collection of colored prints depicting abominable tortures which are being inflicted by Turks in modern garb upon their own countrymen and upon Greeks. These pictures illustrate an era in Turkish history which is gone, though it is still near enough for many living persons to have been witnesses of its barbarities. As a fact, ingenuity in giving pain belongs to all uncivilized communities; and our fore-fathers, with their thumbscrews, racks, and wedge boots were quite as cruel as the Turks of thirty years ago. But it is noticeable that Turks used to exhibit a grim humor in making the punishment of a criminal in some sort congruous to his offense. A tradesman who sold short weight was nailed by the ear to his own doorpost for a half a day, that all his fellow townsmen might have a good look at him; a wife who had encouraged gallants was tied up in a sack along with a cat and a monkey, the notion being that she might try her arts in keeping these companions quiet; a judge or a commander who had accepted bribes was taken to some public place and forced to swallow a spoonful of molten gold; while an unfaithful pasha received a silken bowstring, on the tacit understanding that his own conscience would suggest to what use the present should be put. These and similar punishments were such as commended themselves to the rough and popular notion of retributive justice; and to this day Turkish valis and cadis are wont to draw much on their imaginations when inflicting penalties. It is only in the European cities and the consular towns of the Levant that the judges confine themselves to the halter, the bastinado and imprisonment; in the thoroughly Turkish towns they keep up the paternal tradition of chastising an offender according to the methods most likely to reform him. As the power of cadis is almost unlimited, they may condemn a criminal to do the strangest things, provided they neither maim nor permanently injure him, which would be contrary to law. A man accused of selling sham nostrums to cure disease or to make the beard grow, would certainly be invited to swallow a pint or two of his mixture; a scandal monger would have to ride through the town with his face turned to the ass' tail, and to read a recantation of his falsehoods in public, and a drunkard would possibly get ducked in a river or horsepond. There are no prisons in the inland towns of the empire. A military guard house, with some unsavory cellars, serves the purposes of a lockup, and sometimes it may happen that an offender will be allowed to lie here for weeks or months. But the favorite way of dealing with a thief or a ruffian guilty of aggravated assault is to consign him as a bondsman to the persons he has wronged. If the latter have no need of his services they may hire him out to somebody who has; or if the Government be in want of hands to execute public works, then the criminal may be drafted into a labor gang, in which he will probably remain until the works in question are finished. There are large prisons at Stamboul and Adrianople, and they are supposed to be conducted on western principles of hamanity; but they are filthy places, in which the half starved inmates, having nothing to do, are much worse off than if they were sent out to slavery.

NOTES.

"Ten mills make one cent." When we were a youngster on the farm, and the wheat had to be ground, we were the one sent.

The London Daily Telegraph has produced the champion bull of the season. Writing of the German Social Democrats, it says that "neither fear of eternal punishment nor reward." Which reminds the Whitehall Review of the story of Bishop Wilson, of Calcutta, who was travelling to his diocese, when a breeze sprung up, then a squall, and at last matters got so bad that the skipper came below with a grave countnance. "My Lord," said he, "in a very few minutes you will be in heaven." "Dear, dear!" ejaculated the Bishop, "how very, very horrible!"

Since Barham discovered a rhyme to Mephistopheles, nobody ought to despair of finding a rhyme to any word under the sun. "Cup of coffee less" was Barham's rhyme, and it is a good one, yet a would-be poet offered to give the poet laureate a full cask of Cyprus wine if he would suggest a rhyme to Cyprus. Lord Winchelsea has found "vip'rous:"—

Decidedly weak, but undoubtedly vip'rous
Are the peacemongers' sneers at the cession of Cyprus.

A young man, a candidate for a license as a local preacher, recently preached a specimen sermon before the Conference, in which he said that while the body was material and would perish, the soul was immaterial. One of the official brethren objected peremptorily to his license, for the reason that he had uttered the "strangest doctrine he had ever heard from the pulpit;" for he had declared that "the soul was immaterial—a thing of no value—when the Bible says it is worth more than the whole world."

Fall Wheat.

Agriculturists are always in doubt as to whether wheat planted in the fall or spring yields the greater results. In this climate and soil, with proper attention, fall wheat produces a good yield. In this case, however, much depends upon the fertilizer used, and this is an almost paramount consideration. Among the various fertilizers on sale, the Arlington guano has been proved by use to be the most suitable for fall wheat. This excellent fertilizer is on sale at the store of Cooke & Wainright, Martin, between Wilmington and Blount streets. *

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural results. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and all the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles, to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the Western Continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

A Desideratum.

The good farmer is always a connoisseur in the matter of seeds. He is always aware of the advantages of securing such as by their appearance give full promise of producing the best results as a crop. About none is he more particular than as to oats. At the store of M. T. Norris & Co., there have just been received 200 bushels of the finest seed winter oats ever seen in this market. The firm also has on sale a quantity of rust-proof oats, which are commended to the attention of farmers generally. *

A Luxury and Necessity.

Among the articles of every day table use there is one which gives savor to nearly all the rest, and upon whose freedom from impurites of all kinds much depends. Attention given to its quality always produces the best results in making eatables both more healthful and palatable. This necessity yet luxury, is salt. Of this the advice get the best is always in order. The finest article sold in this or any market is on sale in all quantities at the establishment of W. H. Dodd, Corner Wilmington and Martin Streets. *

Farmers and country merchants will do well to call and examine our stock of groceries, shoes, and bagging and ties. Prices always as low as the lowest. Mr. John R. Tyrrell, formerly with Mr. W. A. Myatt, is with me, and will be pleased to have his friends and customers call on him.

Radical Condoning of Crime--The Case of Kimpton.

Northern sentiment did much to force upon the South the horde of thieving carpet-bag plunderers, who have infested its borders and outraged its people. Not only has Northern sentiment done this, but the power of Federal authority has heretofore protected them in their spoliations. More than this, when they have left the States of the South because, as one of them expressed it, "there was nothing remaining to steal," or when they have been compelled to depart to avoid amenability to violated law, they have generally found a Radical national administration ready to condone their crimes or even reward them with office.

The State of Massachusetts, perhaps, more than any other, has been a fruitful hot-bed, whence carpet-bagism was transplanted to the South. As the North of Europe, in the days of Attila and Alaric, was the officina gentium, in which the Goths and Vandals were trained for their ravaging and predatory incursions upon the fertile plains of Italy, so New England (and Massachusetts, especially,) has been the cess-pool that bred whole swarms of unprincipled emissaries and adventurers for the disturbance and corruption of our social, political and industrial system.

And now, true to her history, Massachusetts, through her Governor and Attorney General, has interposed to shield a conspicuous rogue and to apologize for the peculation and thieving of a notable transgressor.

During the carpet-bag administration of Gov. Scott, of South Carolina, he constituted what was known as a Financial Board, with one H. H. Kimpton, another carpet-bagger who had settled in that State, as agent in the city of New York. Together they are charged with having increased the debt of the State to the extent of $6,000,000, by the issue of fraudulent conversion bonds. Such of the proceeds of these bonds, as were not appropriated by Scott and Kimpton personally, were employed to bribe members of the Legislature, during the dark days of negro and Radical rule, in order to promote other gigantic schemes of villainy. Later, as is well known, both of the villains fled the State. So the case stood: Kimpton was an acknowledged fugitive, and South Carolina wanted him for the ends of justice. This was all Massachusetts needed to know, when Gov. Hampton made requisition for him. But the Governor and Attorney General of that State, in their anxiety to protect a Radical rogue, proceed to put the good faith of South Carolina on trial, and, despite the official documents and the declarations of the agents and authorities, finally impeach her integrity and refuse the demand.

A Republican Governor of Florida shielded Littlefield from the clutches of North Carolina law, and a Republican Governor of virtuous Massachusetts now harbors and protects an equal rogue. Of such is Radicalism—even though it be "purified," according to the latest lexicon of Josiah.

Another Reason.

In addition to the numerous and imperative reasons, involving the question of the Presidency, the reform of the currency and the amelioration of the condition of the people, why the Democracy of the country should retain its control of the next House of Representatives, there is yet another of a vital and momentous character, to which public attention has not been much directed. The next Congress will have to pass the law governing the United States census of 1880, upon which the next re-distribution of representation among the States will be based. In the Federal apportionment not only power in the House of Representatives, but also the votes in the Electoral College, are involved. The successful crime, by which the result of the last Presidential election was reversed, has laid the country more than ever liable to the danger of a fraudulent apportionment if the unscrupulous Radical malignants should obtain possession of the House.

Let every Democrat, therefore, remember that, in voting for the nominee of his party, he is voting directly for a just and equitable apportionment of representation under the next census. Let every Southern Democrat, especially, bear in mind, that every vote, which diminishes the chance of Democratic ascendancy in the next House of Representatives, is virtually placing it in the power of the Radical party to deprive the South of its fair and just voice and influence in the councils of the government and the direction of its legislation!

Sound and Sensible.

The Mississippi Democratic State Convention has issued an excellent address, in which they take the broad and sensible ground that "unity and harmony are essential to victory; that all independent movements are dangerous to the integrity of party organization; that all independent candidates are inspired solely by a lust for office; that they shall be treated as common enemies to the welfare of the people, and the avowed enemies of the Democratic Conservative party of the State of Mississippi."

The convention system is an indispensable usage of the Democratic party. Without it there could be no regularity of proceeding or concert of action. He who sets at defiance the decision of these assemblages makes war upon the accepted means of carrying its measures into effect, and is an enemy of the party the same as if he openly denounced its principles and objects. There is strength in organization and unity. There is defeat in division, and it would be suicidal for any party to permit its organization to be weakened and its discipline to become lax.

The "National" of this City protests that it did not call the late Democratic District Convention an assemblage of "aristocrats," but a body of "autocrats.'

"Strange such difference there can be
"Twixt tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee,"

The same paper also protests (like the Queen in Hamlet, it "protests too much,") that it has had as hard things to say about the Republican leaders as about the Democratic. We have carefully looked over the last issue of the paper, and, bating a mild depreciation of John Sherman, we see nothing therein but abuse of the Democratic party. Perhaps we shall have better luck hereafter. Samuel Lover tells of an Irishman in France, who, upon being presented with a bowl of the famous "soup" of that country, eagerly surveyed its contents, and being about to throw off his coat was asked what he was at, when he replied, "Faith, I'm going to swim for that bit of mate." Possibly we may find the "bit of mate," by swimming for it. For the present, the "National's" arraignment of the Radical party, as compared with its bad words for the Democracy, reminds us of Falstaff's "pennyworth of bread to an intolerable deal of sack."

The Fall elections opened in Arksasan on Monday. We have no information as to the result, but as the Radicals made no fight, and the "National" movement there amounts to nothing, the Legislature is, of course, strongly Democratic, and we shall elect a United States Senator in the place of the carpet-bagger, Dorsey.

The Vermont election took place on Tuesday, but there was no shadow of expectation anywhere of other than the usual "unanimous" Republican victory.

But the election that the politicians are waiting for is the one in Maine next Monday, which is to prove what there really is in the greenback movement in that quarter. The best opinion seems to be that the governor vote will be so divided that Connor (Republican) is likely to fail of a majority and consequently take his election from the Legislature, which is sure to be Republican, and that the Republicans are in great danger of losing a Congressman or two.

The New York Tribune feelingly observes: "The United States Senate passes into the hands of the Democratic party on the Fourth of next March, and if the Republicans hope thereafter to exercise a controlling influence, or any influence worthy of the name, on the legislation of the country, they must secure it by electing a majority of the next House of Representatives. Democratic ascendancy in both branches of Congress means the success of those distinctively Democratic measures to the passage of which the Republican majority of the Senate has presented an insuperable obstacle for the last three years." Truer words were never spoken, and we commend them to the earnest attention of all men who believe "Democratic measures" essential to the good of the country.

The Work of Death.

The intelligence from the fever-scourged sections of the South becomes more sad and sickening every day. Our eleg grams this morning not only show an increased virulence of the fell disease in the communities heretofore afflicted but announce its appearance in new localities. God help the suffering people!

Tidings, too, of an appalling disaster come to us across the ocean. Six hundred and fifty persons have found watery graves in the Thames, owing to a collision in that river. Verily,

"The spider's most attenuated thread
Is cord,—is cabre,—to man's brittle hold
On human life!"

A Radical paper in Johnstown, Pennsylvania, takes as a text the fearful ravages of the yellow fever, to bellow forth low and cowardly abuse of the South and its people. The fellow only wants notoriety. It is much pleasanter to read of the generous outpourings of Northern sympathy for the afflicted. They show that the people acknowledge a common brotherhood, and that all sectional and political differences sink before the wave of suffering and death.

Our advices from Johnston are of the most encouraging character. Mr. Davis is being received with great cordiality and enthusiasm, and there will be but small abatement, if any, of the Democratic vote in the county. The Republicans, generally, are split between Bledsoe and Turner, though many will have nothing to do with either of them. This is unkind, after such desperate love-making on the part of the two Brindle-tails.

Fred. Grant, the conqueror of an evening reporter of Chicago, has expressed his opinion on the great political topic. "I don't think pa is so pious a man as Mr. Hayes," he says, "but he can knock the spots out of him as a President."

Ben Butler has formally entered the field as a candidate for the Massachusetts governorship. He would make an excellent governor,—of Massachusetts.

The New York Herald has a long article on "the Candidates for the Presidency." Its conclusion is that the Democracy hold the winning hand for 1880. The conclusion is the more valuable because it is a reluctant one.

Senator Butler, of South Carolina, has been interviewed. He believes that the Democrats of that State will elect a solid delegation to the next Congress. If so, it will be a Democratic gain of three members.

The Oxford Torchlight suggests Capt. Rufus Amis, of Granville, for the Speakership of our next House of Representatives.

BEAUTY:

OR THE

Secret of a Fair Face

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAUTIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W. E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when he discovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.
It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.
It removes all roughness eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.
It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.
It makes the plainest face beautiful.
It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.
It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.
The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so life-like in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.
Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store

THE MOST WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF THE AGE!

A CERTAIN AND SPEEDY

CURE FOR SCROFULA.

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS!

The following is from the Raleigh News, and was a voluntary insertion and not an advertisement:
"Years ago an old Indian left a receipt for curing Scrofula with Mrs. Person's father. Mrs. Person lives at Franklinton, or in that section. A child was born to Mrs. Person, and it had the scrofula. The doctors gave it up to die. She thought of that receipt, that was now old and musty, and hid away in an upstairs drawer. She concluded if the child was bound to die, it wouldn't hurt to follow that receipt. She went out and gathered the herb, got the whisky, and did as directed to the child. Her child now lives well and hearty. More than this: Only a few months since a South Carolinian, whose name has slipped us, was suffering with some scrofulous affection on the heel. He had been to the Hot Springs in Arkansas, and from there he went to Kittrell Springs. Nothing did him any good. At Kittrell's they told him of Mrs. Person's recipe, and Dr. —— wrote to Mrs. Person if she cured that South Carolinian her receipt was worth money. And the South Carolinian sent her word if she cured him he would give her five hundred dollars. She sent him directions what to do, and added if they cured him he could send her twenty-five dollars; she wouldn't ask five hundred. The South Carolinian went home, and shortly afterward sent Mrs. Person a check for twenty-five dollars, and wrote the most grateful letter he knew how. Bless those old Indians! We would like to have one for a near neighbor."

LOUISBURG, N. C., May 22, 1878.

MRS. JOE PERSON:
The medicine I purchased of you last winter proved of lasting benefit to my son. He was troubled with twenty-seven running sores, some of them quite large, and of a scrofulous nature. In less than three weeks after commencing the use of your Remedy he was perfectly restored, and is to-day quite well and healthy. AS A TONIC AND BLOOD PURIFIER IT HAS NO EQUAL. Hoping that you may be spared for many years of usefulness, I remain,
Very Respectfully,
T. J. STOKES.

CIRCULAR SAW MILL.

LEVER FEED CUTTER

Hege's Improved Circular Saw Mill, is no new and untried saw mill, but is one that is well and favorably known in many sections, and wherever it is introduced it is fast superceding all others. It is simple in construction, yet reliable in operation, and is sold for less than any similar first class saw mill. Send for descriptive circular

Lever Feed Cutter,

Is something entirely new and novel in the feed cutter line. With this cutter the feed is cut off diagonally, instead of square across, as is the case with all other cutters at the same time our cutter has a draw cut, acting exactly on the same principle that a knife is used in cutting off a stick, consequently with our Diagonal Feed Cutter we can cut more feed with less labor in a given time than any other cutter costing twice as much.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——A drummer's license was issued yesterday to Marrow & Co., Norfolk, Va.

——Complaints about the streets come in so fast that space cannot be given them.

——One of the most awfully impressive creatures on this earth is a deputy sheriff in a court room.

——A portion of the Fayetteville street gutters is being repaved. Continue the good work, and keep them free of sand.

——There was no mail nor express from the North last evenig. The cause was the accident on the Richmond, Fredericksburg & Potomac railroad, near Richmond.

——The following letters are held at the city post-office: Mrs Thos Lassiter, Merry Oaks; this bears no stamp; and Mrs Jno D Petty, Mecklenburg county, Va,; this has no city stated.

——The latest amusement is to tie a newspaper to a grain of corn, by a string some yard or more in length. One of the vagrant geese always on the streets walks up and swallows the corn. He instantly sees the corn, and flies off with the uncomfortable appendage, while his playmates look on in amazement at his antics.

The Temperature.

Temperature yesterday, as indicated by the thermometer at Tucker's store:

6 a. m.,	76°	2 p. m.,	89°
10 "	83°	6 "	85°

The Boys in Gray.

The Raleigh Light Infantry, headed by their band, will attend the Dime Party on Friday evening. The gay uniforms will add much to the beauty of the scene.

County Commissioners.

This Board was in session yesterday. The day was spent in the transaction of much routine business. Sundry accounts against the county were allowed. The Board meets again to-day.

Not Reinstated.

Mrs. J. A. McDonald has not been reinstated in her position as teacher at the Graded School, as was expected. Those of the School Board who so much deplored her dismissal, ought to rise and explain.

Released from Jail.

Cader Atkinson, colored, who not long since was committed to jail for the crime of assault and battery, was released yesterday, upon the receipt of an order from the magistrate who committed him.

Mayor's Court.

Only two cases were up for trial yesterday. These were both drunks, and were allowed to reflect on their unfortunate fondness for the ardent, by being stowed away in the cool grottos of the guard house for twelve hours.

Another Excursion.

A special excursion car came down from the west yesterday, filled with about one hundred persons from Charlotte, Salisbury, etc., on the way to Beaufort. Among the number was Mr. Sam Dickson, of Durham, who will take charge of the Beaufort Elevated Railway.

Yet Another.

The great dry goods firm of W. H. & R. S. Tucker give notice to-day, in a new advertisement, of the receipt of an immense stock of new goods. In the shoe department, they offer all varieties of foot coverings, at the lowest cash prices. See the advertisement elsewhere.

Trotting Race.

On Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock sharp, there will be a trotting match between Mr. W. H. Lyon's black mare Jennie Morgan and Mr. E. Pomeroy's gray mare, unnamed. The winner to gain best two in three. A purse of $50 will be contended for.

There will also be two running races.

A New Firm.

Messrs. C. G. Latta, of the late firm of Barbee & Latta, and W. A. Myatt, have formed a co-partnership, and will hereafter conduct the grocery business at the house formerly occupied by Barbee & Latta, north side of Martin street. The name of the new firm is Latta & Myatt, and it is one of the strongest in this department of trade in the State. Both members of the firm anticipate a very large fall trade, and will make due provision therefor.

A Child's Offering.

Young and old alike will read with pleasure this letter from one of the little ones. The generous demoiselle is a daughter of Geo. T. Stronach, Esq.,

STRONACH FARM, NEAR RALEIGH, September 4, 1878.

Mr. Anderson:—Papa said you wanted little brother and me to send all of the spare money we had to the yellow fever patients, so we send all we have, and trust in a broken reed for more. ANNIE B. STRONACH.

The R. L. I. Band.

The Calliopean Minstrels are composed, in greater part, of the members of the new band of the Raleigh Light Infantry. They are working hard to aid in the noble charity of assisting the yellow fever sufferers. There will be given a particularly creditable performance, which will fully develop the natural talent of the performers. This band have tendered their services to the ladies, for the Dime Party of Friday evening, and will do their share on that occasion,

Personals.

Eugene Morehead, Esq., of Greensboro, is at the Yarbrough.

Mr. J. C. Brewster, one of the best hardware dealers in the State, has gone North, to replenish his store with large additions to his stock of goods.

Criminal Court.

This Court met yesterday at 10 o'clock, His Honor Judge George V. Strong presiding.

The entire day was occupied in the argument of counsel in the case of the State vs Presly Mangum and Jordan Baily, for larceny. The case was given the jury at night-fall.

A Ball Extractor.

Henry Alston, a native of this place, had a ball extracted from his person yesterday by Dr. McGhee. He was shot in Wilmington about six years ago, the ball entering the left breast near the heart, passing to the back bone near the shoulder blade. The ball has since moved around the body to the right thigh, from which it was yesterday extracted.

A False Alarm.

The report prevailed in the first ward, yesterday, that Jo. Davis (one of the interesting trio about whom so much has been said) had died of yellow fever. It gives the city editor pleasure to state that the report was unfounded, and that the youngster, though slightly indisposed, is in no danger of becoming angelic.

M. T. Leach, Esq.

The News has the pleasure of again presenting the name of this favorably known merchant for the fall trade. Mr. Leach stands high as a thorough going and reliable business man. He has been actively engaged in the cotton and grocery business in this city for the past ten years, and has succeeded well in building up a large and profitable business. Mr. G. E. Leach, the efficient office manager, adds much to the popularity of the house, and will always be found polite and attentive to customers, who can rely on first-class treatment while dealing at this establishment.

Prisoners from Johnston.

The Sheriff of Johnston brought yesterday two prisoners, both white, whom he left in the tender care of Jailer J. S. Bryan. One of the parties was R. C. Smith, who is here on a writ of habeas corpus. The case will be heard before Judge Strong.

The other was E. Goodwin, who is charged with having burned the woods in a portion of Cumberland county, thus destroying the huckleberry crop. He will be held here a few days and then transferred to Cumberland for trial.

Cutting Affray.

The liquor saloon or dram shop of Marcom & Baily, on the Market place, appears to be a place held in bad repute by the police, who term it a disorderly place. Yesterday, as usual, the room was filled with a crowd, largely composed of negroes. Two of these, Henry Badger and Sam Norwood, engaged in a joint discussion. Becoming heated by bad whiskey and argument, Badger drew a knife and smote his opponent on the ear, inflicting a somewhat severe wound. The police hastened to the scene of the affray, but ere their arrival the participants decamped. They have left the city, presumedly for the rural districts.

Aid for the Suffering.

The good people are at work, earnestly, for the relief of the sufferers by the scourge of yellow fever. The citizens of Ridgeway yesterday sent to this point the sum of $19.50. This was sent through Mr. Cheatham, the agent of the Southern Express Company at that point. It was forwarded yesterday to Memphis.

Citizens of Warren Plains sent $5, which was, in like manner, forwarded.

The sum of $25 was sent Governor Vance by Scotland Neck Lodge, No. 68, A. F. and A. M. This was voted by the lodge to be applied to this purpose. The Private Secretary promptly forwarded the amount.

The ladies of the Aid Association continue their good work here, and solicited subscriptions of all kinds yesterday. The sum so far contributed is large, and it is hoped will be greatly increased.

The State Dentists' Association.

The North Carolina Dental Association met on Tuesday at Charlotte. The place of assembly was the Masonic Temple.

The association was called to order by the President, Dr J W Hunter, of Salem, and Prayer was offered by Rev E A Osborne, of Charolotte.

The roll of members was called and the following gentlemen answered to their names:

J W Hunter, Salem; V E Turner, Raleigh; C J Watkins, Salem; E L Hunter, Enfield; D E Everitt, Raleigh; W H Hoffman, Charlotte; Isaiah Simpson, Winnsboro, S C; M A Bland, Charlotte; J H Crawford, Raleigh; H W Robinson, Wadesboro.

Drs A B Ware, J A Glenn, J H Durham, L N Durham, B H Garrett and J Lowenstein were duly elected members.

A deal of routine busiuess was transacted and several interestieg reports of cases were read. The session will continue two or three days. The report of the proceedings appears in full in the Charlotte Observer, from which this is taken.

The Grand Dime Party of the Ladies Relief Association.

A meeting of the Ladies Executive Committee of the ten city churches, who are, in a spirit of true sisterhood and the largest charity, working for the aid of the afflicted people of this fair South, met yesterday at the Session room of the First Presbyterian Church, to perfect arrangements etc. The attendance was large and great interest was manifested. Reports of the progress of the work of soliciting contributions, were made, and proved encouraging. The sum of $318,66 was reported as collected on Tuesday. Besides this a quantity of edibles and delicacies were reported as donated, and will be prepared ere Friday evening. There are yet some members of the committee to hear from; these will report to-day.

A perfect understanding was had as to the proper place for holding the grand festival of Friday evening. For this purpose the passages of the capitol will be used. The grounds will be illuminated by reflector lamps. The sum of ten cents will be charged for admission. No pains are to be spared to make the evening a pleasantly memorable one. Music will be furnished by the three brass bands of the city, who have kindly offered their services. The evening's enjoyment will be kept up until after midnight. Those who may choose to attend the theatre, can thus visit the entertainment afterwards. It gives promise of affording a rare treat to all who take any pleasure in life.

The ladies of the Executive Committee are requested to meet at the capitol to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, to make the final arrangements for the dime party.

The Next State Fair.

Donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society, for the premium list of the 18th annual fair, at Raleigh, N. C., October 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, next.

(Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.)

Six annual subscriptions to the Farmers' Journal. for 1879, $9, given by J. M. Wade, Secretary, Hartford, Conn. This is the standard authority on the care and management of fowls, and cannot fail to be a valuable premium to all those who are interested in poultry raising.

One fine crayon portrait, $15, to be made from any subject, at the choice of the successful exhibitor, who desires the premium, given by Eugene L. Harris, artist in crayon drawing, Chapel Hill, N. C. Mr. Harris has applied for space for an interesting exhibit in his line of art. Two fine pictures, from his pencil, of Governor Vance and Hampton, adorn the office of the North Carolina Agricultural Society.

One fat hog, given by Maj. W. B. Lynch, Mebanesville, N. C. Major Lynch is a valued friend and contributor to the fair. He has usually had excellent live stock on exhibition, and never fails to carry off premiums. He was the first citizen in the State, after the last fair, to offer his hearty aid and co-operation for 1878. We are sure his liberal premium will be appreciated.

One No. 12 Farm Forge, portable, $16, given by the Empire Portable Forge Company, Cohoes, New York. We were indebted to this generous firm also last year, and their neat and compact, but very serviceable forge, was much admired. They deserve the attention of the practical farmer.

Wilmington Crows.

The Wilmington Star crows over the cotton receipts, and exultingly says:

"Wilmington, as a cotton market, has been steadily growing. In 1876 the receipts were 83,420 bales. Some envious croakers said that was because the yellow fever was at Savannah. But the next year the receipts went up to 113,461 bales—an increase of over 20,000. The receipts for the year ending August 31, 1878, show further increase, and amount to 123,374 bales. Charlotte and Raleigh are justly elated over their receipts, but Wilmington has more than both together. Raleigh shows 45,000, Charlotte 56,280—total, 101,280."

STATE BANKRUPT LAWS.

What Debtors who Cannot Pay their Debts Must do Hereafter.

The repeal of the national bankrupt law having taken effect, the State laws on the question of insolvency now come into operation. In New York, the Legislature, at its last session, anticipating the repeal of the national law, enacted thirteen amendments to the then existing law. The main provisions of the law as amended require that an "unpreferential and impartial surrender of property through a conveyance from debtor to assignee, accepted by the latter, who joins in it, and acknowledged after the manner of deeds, shall be made and be recorded, not with a register, but in the county clerk's office. The debtor files his sworn inventory and schedules with the clerk of the county court within twenty days after the recording of the conveyance; or, in case of the debtor's default, the filing is made by the assignee within ten days after such default. The law provides for a due bond from the assignee, the proper citations to creditors, a public hearing to any one interested, to be accompanied with full examination of debtor or books or other witnesses, a permission for compromises and for trials by jury of disputed facts, and finally for the distribution of dividends and the release of the debtor, upon proofs of a composition between the assignor and his creditors.

In Rhode Island, Vermont, Connecticut, New Jersey, Michigan, California and North Carolina, the claims of creditors are discharged upon the debtor making an assignment of all his property. In Indiana, Kansas, Oregon, Maryland, Mississippi, and Missouri, the debtor can assign his property, but cannot be discharged unless every one of his creditors consent. In Pennsylvania, Delaware, Ohio, Illinois, Kentucky, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Colorado, Virginia and Georgia, a debtor may make an assignment, but he cannot get a discharge except upon payment of his debt in full.

In Maine, New Hampshire and South Carolina, the law permits an assignment, but the debtor is discharged only from those debts the holders of which sign the deed of assignment. In Louisiana the law allows a discharge if the consent of a majority of the creditors in number and amount is obtained. In Massachusetts, Tennessee, Arkansas, Colorado, West Virginia, Florida, Alabama and Texas, a debtor cannot even make an assignment.

Meanwhile you had best offer our entire stock of white and decorated tea, dinner and chamber sets at COST, so as to make room for our splendid line of new styles and patterns. Law's China and Silverware House.—Extract of letter from New York buyer. *

Business Changes.

The latest news in mercantile circles here is that of the change in firms whereby Messrs. C. G. Latta, and W. A. Myatt join their forces in the fall business battle. The new firm of Latta & Myatt will occupy the store lately held by Barbee & Latta. In this fine establishment they will keep a full stock of all farm supplies, groceries of every description, together with cotton ties and bagging of best brands. These, as well as all other needed supplies, will be sold in any quantity at bottom prices. *

When we Demoralize the Stomach.

By excesses or imprudence in eating, we cannot hope to escape the consequences for any great length of time. The most robust digestion must succumb to abuses of that important function. But supposing that we have been foolish enough to enfeeble the stomach, is the damage irreparable? By no means. The dyspeptic has only to do two things to insure his ultimate recovery. First, he should adopt an easily digestible diet. Second, he should use with regularity and persistence Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the leading gastric invigorant of the age. The multiform symptoms of dyspepsia, and the most invariably attendant disorders, biliousness and constipation will assuredly cease to persecute the sufferer if the above advice is attended to. Who that has suffered the torments that chronic indigestion inflicts will neglect to take advantage of a remedy when if the most positive evidence of the medical profession and the public is to be received with due credence, is an absolute specific for the complaint. sept 3-d6t w1t-

Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef is a most excellent preparation. It is par excellence. Superior to cod liver oil or anything I have ever used in wasted or impaired constitutions.

A recent letter from New Orleans states that Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef has been extremely beneficial as a preventive to those exposed to yellow fever malaria. Williams & Haywood, Agents. sept 3-2w

JONES' BAKING POWDER

FOR SALE BY ALL GROCERS.

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the perfection of science, and is recommended by the leading Chemists in the United States, whose certificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better, purer or more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD
IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER.
IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY.
IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.
YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR.
YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST.
YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER.
YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earnestly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulterates and cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap spurious adulterated goods called Baking Powder would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by unscrupulous manufacturers. We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article through out the West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and Strength.

All first-class storekeepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."

The success which the Kenmore High School has achieved under the energetic and conscientious administration of the Principal and his able Assistant, and the preparation and training of its pupils, who have entered the University of Virginia, have fully justified the recommendation of this excellent School to the public at its beginning.
